

CLINIC COACHING STAFF

Liz Kelly - Director

Newly named Lindenwood Softball Head Coach Liz Kelly comes to Lindenwood after coaching the last four seasons at Maryville University. In 2016, she led the Saints to their best season in program history, going 39-16 and making the NCAA Division II Tournament for the first time. Kelly has won over 400 games as a collegiate head coach as well as having the honor to coach the Dutch Olympic team.

Linda Wells - Instructor

Wells is an honorary clinic instructor this year who is also the CEO of Wells Sports. Wells' experience comes from formerly being the Arizona State head softball coach, Greek Olympic head coach, and the pitching coach for the Dutch Olympic team alongside Kelly.

Courtney Conley - Instructor

A native of Robertsville, Mo., Conley was recently named assistant coach for Lindenwood. Conley comes from Missouri State, where she served as a graduate assistant coach for two years following a standout career at Alabama, where she helped the Tide to three consecutive SEC regular season titles from 2010 to 2012. Conley attended Eureka High School outside of St. Louis, and was the 2007 St. Louis Post-Dispatch Player of the Year as well as Missouri Gatorade Player of the Year.

Donny Griffin - Instructor

Griffin, now an assistant coach at Lindenwood, has coached softball at many levels, including as head softball coach of the St. Louis Illusions, St. Louis Gamers, and Visitation Academy. While at Visitation, he led the program to its only MSHSAA quarterfinal appearance in school history. He was the assistant softball coach at Maryville University for four seasons, helping guide the team to its first regional finals appearance.

Nikki Taylor-

Taylor, a Saint Charles County pitching instructor, had a successful career playing at Maryville University. In her four seasons at the plate, Taylor had hit .336, slugged 22 homers, had 77 extra-base hits, and drove in 113. In the circle, Taylor accumulated 316.1 innings of work for a 2.14 ERA with 178 strikeouts. Taylor is also the pitching coach for the Swedish National Team as well as a pitcher and utility player for the Skövde Saints of Sweden where she finishes her career there this September.
